

Paris & Provence

SEPT 13 – ARRIVAL IN PARIS

- Arrive in Paris by noon, gather up all guests
- Meet up with the boats and possibly get in a test row after unloading
- Dinner all together and big sleeps for tomorrow!

SEPT 14 – Traversée de Paris!!!

- Early wake-up and breakfast before walking over to the boats
- After the Traversée, lunch and euphoria then naps!
- Dinners on your own near the hotel

SEPT 15 – On our way to PROVENCE

- Today we'll leave Paris behind and head South, to Provence.
- We'll along the way for beauty and refreshment
- Check-in to our hotel in Salary-sul-Mer and you'll be free to explore this seaside town for dinner
- Our boats will arrive separately nearby

SEPT 16 - Rowing the Med

- We'll head to the boat launching site that has been picked based on the weather predictions and get out onto the water
- The launch will follow with provisions, water and lifevests
- We'll beach the boats and enjoy a big picnic spread.
- The van will meet us there and bring us back to the hotel.

SEPT 17-18 - Rowing & More

- We'll be back in the boats early in the day, rowing as far as we can along our path
- Lunch nearby in a local restaurant
- Afterwards we'll organize a light hike or one of the many amazing art museums in the area - activities will be kept flexible to ensure the best weather is reserved for rowing.
- Dinner on your own in Sanary-Sur-Mer

SEPT 19 - TOULON - Checkout SEPT 20

- If the weather has been on our side, we'll row into Toulon on the 19th and claim our lodgings as victorious seafaring gods.
- We'll load the boats and say goodbye to Orso, off to his next boat wrangling adventure.
- Toulon is a gorgeous town with lots to see, do, and shop in.
- Dinner all together and toasts to our awesomeness.
