Pick up in Pisa around noon at the car rental area of the Pisa Airport.	This morning we'll go to the Leonardo Da Vinci museum, in Vinci, where Leonardo was born. We'll see his birth house, too. This is the 500 th year of his birth!	TBA!	Florence! and go for a row under the magnificent Ponte Vecchio. Showers at the club and a bit of exploring before lunch.	Today we'll have a cooking lesson in a villa once occupied by Napoleon Bonaparte's sister, and learn about their biodynamic winery. But first we'll do our shopping at the local farmers market!	Lucca! Today is for my favorite town. Medieval, Roman, Renaissance ...exquisite and almost free from car traffic. The walls are made to be walked on, cycled on, enjoyed, as are the shopping streets and more. On the way there we'll stop at the most amazing coffee and chocolate shop.	Morning row with our youth team, maybe some handicapped races!	Last day...schedule TBA as we wait for departure times and special requests! Morning row!
First stop, lunch!	Lunch in Vinci or thereabouts		Lunch at the club, or split off to maximize your time in the city.	A well-deserved lunch that we've cooked, at the beautiful estate of Cosimo Maria Masini wines.	Lunch at my favorite restaurant in Lucca, run by friends of ours.	Lunch with our family at our home
After lunch we'll go visit the Piazza dei Miracoli. If you're interested in climbing the tower let me know in advance so I can book a spot for you. Then, off to San Miniato to get settled at your hotel.	After lunch we'll visit the Salani rowing shells workshop and see how our boats are made, by this three-generational family. Then off to the lake for an afternoon row!	4pm ROW.	If you've stuck around for lunch with me, we can explore a few of my favorite haunts. If instead you've decided to maximize your time, you'll take the train back home and we'll pick you up.	Back to the lake for a row!	After lunch we'll have a restorative gelato, coffee and then head straight back to San Miniato for our row. On Saturdays the whole fleet is out so watch out for those 9-year-olds!	A little R&R after the big lunch!
